

Homegrown Minneapolis

March 17, 2014

Don't Run A Fowl of the Regulations: Raising Fowl and Small Animals in Minneapolis

- Criteria for Permit:
 - Fowl such as a chicken, turkey, duck, or pigeon, are only allowed as an accessory use to dwellings.
 - Obtain written consent of at least 80 percent of occupants within 100 feet of the applicant's real estate.
 - No permit shall be given to keep any animal/fowl/pigeon within a dwelling unit or on real estate that contains 3 or more dwelling units.
 - These rules won't apply to veterinarians, licensed pet shops, or licensed kennels.
 - A site plan illustrating the location of the small animal coop and run (if applicable) must be reviewed by CPED-Planning division staff prior to submitting a new permit request.
- All one-year permits expire on January 31 of the year after its issuance unless revoked o Application fee - $50 / Renewal Fee - $40.
- Five-year permits expire on January 31 the 5th year after its issuance unless revoked o Application fee - $150 / Renewal Fee - $40
- Minneapolis Animal Care and Control (MACC) will inspect the premise annually or as necessary
- MACC may refuse to grant a permit for failure to comply with criteria. MACC has the right to keep any fees paid by the applicant.
- Standards of Practice:
 - Housing structure for animals shall not be located less than 20 feet from any habitable building on an adjacent property
 - Structure housing animals shall be screened from adjacent residential use.
 - Durable materials to make housing for fowl/small animals shall be compatible with principle structure and adjacent residential properties. This structure will be at the rear of the principle residential structure.
 - Animal Runs shall be used to exercise small animals or fowl and must be in line with the following:
 1. Must be 20 feet from any habitable building on adjacent property
 2. Used area must be fenced or otherwise enclosed.
 3. Shall be located at rear of principal structure.
 - Live slaughter is prohibited

Photo: Ronald Duncan

For further information please visit <http://www.minneapolismn.gov/animals/licenses/multiple-animal-permits>

Note: Applications for multiple animal, small animal and honeybee permits are not available online. To receive a permit application or for more information, please call 311.