

Homegrown Minneapolis Food Council Membership, January 2018

Statement of Vision

Homegrown Minneapolis Food Council envisions a vibrant local food system that enhances the health of all residents, protects the earth, increases economic vitality, expands social connectedness, and improves food security.

Suado Abdi, Minneapolis Community Planning and Economic Development

Alyssa Banks, community member representative

Winston Bell, community member representative

Dana Boyer, community member representative

Deb Brister, community member representative

Martin Brown, community member representative

Phillipe Cunningham, Minneapolis City Council Member, Ward 4

Beth Dooley, community member representative

Caroline Devany, community member representative

Jaime Harris, community member representative

Ellen Kennedy, Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board

Kristen Klingler, Minneapolis Health Department

Amy Maas, community member representative

DeVon Nolen, community member representative

Rachelle Pass, community member representative

Latasha Powell (Co-Chair), community member representative

Heidi Ritchie, Policy Director, Office of Minneapolis Mayor Jacob Frey

Kate Seybold, Minneapolis Public Schools

Mary Vorndran, community member representative

Jason Walker, community member representative

Sophie Wallerstedt, community member representative

Christina White, community member representative

Mai Yang, Minneapolis Health Department

Zainab Youngmark, community member representative

For more information: www.minneapolismn.gov/homegrown

Tamara Downs Schwei, Local Food Policy/Homegrown Minneapolis Coordinator
Tamara.DownsSchwei@minneapolismn.gov, 612-673-3553

January 8, 2018