

This written notice shall be conspicuously posted in the common area immediately adjoining the front or principal entrance of the building no later than sixty (60) days prior to the affordable housing building made available for sale.

Renter information

This property may be made available for sale beginning 60 days from the date this notice is posted. If a sale is completed, renter protections will impact this property.

If you are an affordable housing renter, you may be entitled to:

- Relocation assistance from the new owner if they terminate or do not renew your rental agreement without cause within the three (3) month renter protection period that commences with the transfer of ownership.
- Relocation assistance from the new owner if you terminate your rental agreement because the new owner raises your rent or initiates a renter rescreening process within the three (3) month renter protection period that commences with the transfer of ownership.
